

People in the Process

SVSH Student Investigation & Adjudication Framework

Title IX Officer:

Supervises the formal investigations and informal resolution of complaints alleging discrimination, sexual harassment, sex offenses, and retaliation at UCI.

OEOD Investigator:

Responsible for conducting formal investigations and informal resolution of complaints alleging discrimination, retaliation, sexual harassment, and sex offenses at UCI.

UC Irvine Police Department:

In cases where law enforcement is conducting its own investigation, the OEOD Investigator may coordinate their fact-finding efforts with PD.

CARE Advocate:

Provides legally confidential support for complainants through the process of making decisions, accessing resources, providing information about rights and options, accompaniment and support through Title IX investigation and adjudication.

Respondent Support Person:

Helps respondents understand their rights and the investigation and adjudication processes. Able to provide accompaniment to hearings. Provides referrals to resources, such as psychological counseling and legal services. Services are private, but not legally confidential.

Hearing Officer:

Responsible for explaining the hearing process, addresses questions, and assists in defining the scope of the hearing. They will oversee the fact-finding hearing and will decide whether a policy violation occurred.

Hearing Coordinator:

Each hearing will have a coordinator, distinct from the hearing officer, who will manage the administrative and procedural aspects of the hearing.

OAISC Officer:

Reviews the Investigative Report and meets with students to resolve allegations of campus policy violations in SVSH cases. Makes decisions regarding sanctions.
